DIVA Vodka to be presented to the winner of The Index (Feb 2007 issue) Rebus Contest
答对新加坡杂志 'Index' 的问答题可赢取 1 瓶 DIVA 伏特加酒- 2007 年 2 月

The Index Rebus Contest

Every month, we have great stuff to give out. For February, one bottle of DIVA Vodka (worth S$119) is up for grabs.

This premium vodka is triple-distilled, ice-filtered, purified through Nordic birch charcoal, and then passed through a fine sand of crushed diamonds and gems, filtering out impurities down to 0.5 microns. Adorning each bottle of DIVA Vodka is a removable glass tube filled with 8.5mm rounds CZ gems.

Only the worthy few can get this. To prove your worth, you must solve a rebus. A rebus is a type of word puzzle that uses images or pictograms to represent words, syllables, or parts of words. For example, the sentence, "I see you" can be represented by using the pictographs of "eye - sea - ewe". Another type of rebus uses simple English letters of the alphabet to represent sentences and phrases.

This month's rebus combines both types of rebuses together in two levels. Clear both levels, tell us what the complete sentence is, and not only rightfully win the bottle of DIVA Vodka, but you'll also get bragging rights in the Index Rebus Hall of Fame.
